ABSTRACT

Literature is a term to describe written or spoken material. An example of literary works is film. Film is a kind of literary work that explores human imagination using imagery, adventures and experiences shown in real time. The real time element makes film a media to see life in a more interesting way. Film is usually revealed through the characters' behavior or acts in the movie. Therefore, a psychologist named Albert Bandura has the theory called Social Cognitive. Social Cognitive consists of Reciprocal Determinism and Observational Learning. This research finds out that someone's personality or human behavior is shown through the major characters of the film. One example is that the main character in the film usually changes her behavior based on certain circumstances.

ABSTRAK

Sastra adalah sebuah istilah yang digunakan untuk menjelaskan bahan tertulis maupun lisan. Salah satu contoh dari karya sastra adalah film. Film adalah sebuah karya sastra yang mengeksplorasi imajinasi manusia dengan menggunakan pencitraan, petualangan, dan pengalaman dalam rangka untuk melihat sisi menarik dari kehidupan. Hal ini biasanya diungkapkan melalui sikap atau perilaku sebuah karakter di film. Oleh karena itu, seorang psikologi yang bernama Albert Bandura telah mempunyai teori yang bernama Kognitif Sosial. Teori Kognitif Sosial terdiri dari Reciprocal Determinism dan Observational Learning/ Dengan menggunakan teori yang dikemukakan oleh Albert Bandura, penelitian ini menemukan bahwa perilaku seseorang atau perilaku manusia ditunjukkan oleh karakter utama di dalam film ini. Salah satu contohnya adalah bahwa perilaku karakter utama di dalam film ini selalu berubah berdasarkan pada kondisi lingkungan sekitarnya.
