CHAPTER VI
CONCLUSION AND FURTHER RESEARCH

6.1 Conclusion

This uno game uses a combination of offcial rules and home rules. Several different rules are, player who takes a card from the deck can't throw the card directly. Effect draw 2 or draw 4 card apply progressive. The rules of the game just have a little diferrent so if the user already know the basics. Play this game will be understand qucikly.

6.2 Further Research

In further development this game will be has graphical user interface, so it will be simple to be played because player just need click and the card automatically thown.

Furthermore, number or player can be set before the game started and it will have feature to determining player first turn. Another important feature is the game will have levels of the game. Then game will have scoring so it can be played many rounds.