

CHAPTER 3

RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

3.1 Data collection methods

1. The first step: Nongme village data collection is done by contacting directly to Lenius Lepi as Nongme Village chief by phone and sending data via email and Facebook form of photo.
2. second step: Data sent directly from the village head Nongme Lenius Lepi send data Nongme Village is in the form of files and pictures, the data there are two groups two groups of data in between :

Group A

1. Home or Nongme Village Views
2. Profil Village
3. Village History
4. Village Vision and Mission
5. Village Structure
6. My contacts

Group B

1. Red Fruit
2. Gaharu Wood
3. Sago
4. Custom Clothes
5. Local Language

After it has been able to data from the father of the village head of Nongme, then for the next data processing will be in the process of raw data into data ready in the Database, and then display the data with the database form table with Mysql in the laptop screen terminal to display its tables respectively. respectively, and to display the project web view using phpMyadmin and WebBrowser

3.2 Interface design

Of the two data sets above are A and B data, group A Contains 1-6 data, group B contains 1-3 data, from Data above, will be inputted into each table to display in WebBrowser, before displaying in webBrowser must make the design of website applications in writing such as this, data already in this process will be input into the web by way of application login :

1. create a News headline
2. create categories
3. write Content
4. input image
5. Save so save automatically goes to the table Category

next step :

1. edit posts and update posts
2. input new photos or replace new images
3. save and after click save go directly to website category editor table
4. back to BrowserWeb
5. print automatically or directly (CTRL) atlaptop keyboard