ABSTRACT

The needs of nurses abroad are very high. Developed countries even offer high fee for them. This is certainly a golden opportunity to increase Indonesia's devisa, especially through the nurses. That's why in Indonesia, there are many nursing schools or nursing academies. The aims of this study are to find out the type of English learned by the students at the D3 program in nursing of STIKES Telogorejo and the students' attitudes in learning that particular type of English.

The results of this research show that: (1) a specific English for the nurses is taught at the D3 program in nursing of STIKES Telogorejo is ESP, so it will support the students' careers in the future. (2) the students' attitudes in learning English are favorable.

ABSTRAK

Kebutuhan perawat di luar negeri sangat tinggi. Negara-negara yang sudah berkembang bahkan menawarkan gaji yang tinggi untuk para perawat. Hal ini tentu saja merupakan kesempatan emas untuk meningkatkan devisa Indonesia, terutama melalui para perawat. Itulah mengapa, di Indonesia, ada banyak sekolah-sekolah keperawatan atau akademi keperawatan. Tujuan dari penelitian ini adalah untuk menemukan tipe bahasa Inggris yang dipelajari murid-murid di program D3 keperawatan STIKES Telogorejo dan sikap dari para murid dalam belajar bahasa Inggris.

Hasil dari penelitian menunjukkan bahwa: (1) bahasa Inggris yang diajarkan di program D3 keperawatan STIKES Telogorejo adalah ESP (Inggris untuk tujuan khusus), sehingga menunjang karir para murid di masa mendatang. (2) sikap dari para murid dalam mempelajari bahasa Inggris adalah baik.
