Dear Dr Saraswati,

On behalf of the Melbourne Law School at the University of Melbourne, I am very pleased to invite you to present a paper at the ninth Melbourne Doctoral Forum on Legal Theory.

The Melbourne Doctoral Forum on Legal Theory is an annual forum that brings together research students and early career researchers from Australia and overseas to engage with the theoretical and methodological concerns of law. Your proposed paper on 'The Obstacles to Indonesian Women as Litigants in Divorce cases to obtaining their Rights: Reckoning the Concern, History and Methods of Family Law and Religious Law' will make an important contribution to the Forum. I also very much hope that you will join in the discussions across all sessions of the Forum.

As a contribution towards the costs of your travel to Melbourne, the Melbourne Law School will provide you with a bursary of $600 (AUD). These funds will be provided to you following your attendance at the Forum.

The Melbourne Doctoral Forum on Legal Theory will be held on 23-24 November 2016 at Melbourne Law School, 185 Pelham Street, Carlton, Melbourne, Australia. More information about the Forum is available at <http://law.unimelb.edu.au/research/mdfit>.

If you have any questions please do not hesitate to contact the organisers of the Forum by email to law-mdfit@unimelb.edu.au.

I very much hope that you will be able to participate in the ninth Melbourne Doctoral Forum on Legal Theory and I look forward to welcoming you to Melbourne in November.

Yours sincerely,

Professor Michelle Foster
Associate Dean (Research)
Melbourne Law School
