ABSTRACT

Virginity is a presumption to someone who has never had sex. In Indonesia, especially in Semarang, people use virginity as a parameter to measure whether a woman is good or bad. Then, people start to judge is a woman still virgin or not and stereotypes of virginity such as getting fatter, have a big breast, waddling gait, have distinctive shoulders, wider hips, bad scents, colored hair, and wearing sexy clothes have appeared. Therefore, in this research the writer attempts to find out the stereotypes of adolescent people in Semarang related to virginity. The type of the study was qualitative research. The writer uses the theory of sexuality and adolescents in Indonesia and the theory of stereotypes of virginity. In order to collect the data to answer the research question, the writer did interview to adolescents in Semarang about what stereotypes of virginity they know and their response to those stereotypes. This research reveals that there are two kinds of stereotypes; physical appearances stereotypes and behavior stereotypes. Nowadays people tend to not care about someone's appearances which was correlated with their virginity. Nevertheless, behavior stereotypes seem still exist for people still gossiping woman and their behavior.

ABSTRAK

Keperawanan adalah anggapan untuk seseorang yang belum pernah berhubungan seks. Di Indonesia, terutama di Semarang, orang menggunakan keperawanan sebagai parameter untuk mengukur apakah seorang wanita itu baik atau buruk. Kemudian, orang mulai menilai apakah seorang wanita masih perawan atau tidak dan stereotip keperawanan seperti bertambah gemuk, memiliki payudara besar, berjalan nganggang, memiliki bentuk bahu yang berbeda, pinggul yang lebih luas, aroma tidak sedap, rambut berwarna, dan mengenakan pakaian seksi telah muncul. Oleh karena itu, dalam penelitian ini penulis berusaha untuk mengetahui stereotip remaja di Semarang terkait keperawanan. Jenis penelitian ini adalah penelitian kualitatif. Penulis menggunakan teori seksualitas dan remaja di Indonesia dan teori stereotip keperawanan. Untuk mengumpulkan data guna menjawab pertanyaan penelitian, penulis melakukan wawancara dengan remaja di Semarang tentang stereotip keperawanan yang mereka ketahui dan respons mereka terhadap stereotip tersebut. Penelitian ini mengungkapkan bahwa ada dua jenis stereotip; penampilan stereotip pada penampilan fisik dan stereotip pada perilaku. Saat ini orang cenderung tidak peduli dengan penampilan seseorang yang berhubungan dengan keperawanannya. Namun demikian, stereotip perilaku tampaknya masih berlaku karena masyarakat masih menggosipkan wanita dan perilaku mereka.
