

Chapter V.

Conclusion

From the research above, a visual guideline book for museum exhibition are agreed that it could aid the museum which are funded by the government to refine their management and workplace. Starting from the museum exhibition brief by educating the section in charge of the exposition, service, presentation and researcher section. The chapter within the book are essential to understand an exhibition brief. It will explain what it takes to create an exhibition for a museum that runs in culture, heritage and history category beginning from the planning phase. The design in this visual guideline is adjusted to the primary target likings in order to be understand easily by the target in this research.

