

3.47% PLAGIARISM
APPROXIMATELY

Report #13388681

CHAPTER I INTRODUCTION 1.1 Background of the Study The fifteenth day of the first month of the Chinese New Year is an important celebration for the Chinese as it is the day of the first full moon in the new year (nationsonline.org, 2020). In Indonesia, the day is well-known as Cap Go Meh, which literally means the fifteenth day of the first month. Like many other Chinese in the world, Chinese Indonesians have a feast together in this day because they believe that Cap Go Meh is the day when they have to cultivate good relationships with families and other people as well as the nature and God (nationsonline.org, 2020). Chinese Indonesians living in Ketapang are no different. As a Chinese Indonesian from Ketapang, the writer is aware that Ketapang people consider Cap Go Meh a special day to celebrate. One of the events that highlight the significance of Cap Go Meh among Chinese Indonesian people in Ketapang is the Cap Go Meh Festival. This festival is organized as an addition to the usual practices