CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION Background of the Study Captain America is an icon of comic history in the United States about a young man who always gets rejected for entry into the U.S Army after the great depression. This movie is set during World War II. In the movie, there is a character portrayed by HYDRA. HYDRA is a terrorist organization separated from Nazi Germany that starts its conquest of the world and becomes an organization dedicated to newfound political doctrine. One of the people controlling HYDRA is Johann Schmidt, who found Tesseract, which he believed could help him manage the world. A tesseract is a stone in the shape of a cube. This tesseract is an artifact that has the power that predated the universe and possessed unlimited energy. After experimenting on the tesseract, Schmidt harnessed the tesseract to create killing weapons and fuel Schmidt s to rule the world.

5 With the power of the tesseract, Schmidt can felt strong enough to lead everyone against Adolf Hitler. In
