

CHAPTER 4

DATA ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION

In this chapter, the writer analyses the Korean Drama Series Hyde Jekyll and Me. The writer discusses the answers to the research questions which are mentioned in Chapter I. To analyze the research question on the Korean Drama Series Hyde Jekyll and Me, the writer used theories in Chapter 2. Data were collected, analyzed, and arranged to present arguments to support the answers to the research questions. The theories used are Sigmund Freud's Psychoanalysis; Id, Ego, and Superego.

4.1 Geo Seo Jin Personalities

This drama tells the story of Geo Seo Jin, a wealthy businessman's son who has everything but has mental illness due to trauma in his childhood. Geo Seo Jin suffers from dissociative identity disorder or multiple personality disorder. This disease makes Geo Seo Jin have multiple personalities, namely Geo Seo Jin's personality and another personality named Robin. The two personalities are opposite. Geo Seo Jin's personality in this drama is described as a figure who is selfish, cold-hearted and does not care about others. Meanwhile, Robin's personality is described as being kind, helpful, and caring for others. Briefly, the bad personality is in Geo Seo Jin, and the great personality is in Robin.

4.1.1 Id

The id is something that contains passion. The arena of low arousal activities is in the unconscious. In the writer's understanding of the id, it can be found in everyday life. For example, when people are starving, they go to look for something to eat. They find food that they immediately cook and consume. After they eat, they are not hungry anymore. In short, when humans feel hungry, they will immediately be looking for something to eat or making some food to make them full. After that, they will eat it until the id is met. In short id is something that people hide.

On these dramas, id is shown on Robin personality. Robin is described as a figure hidden by Geo Seo Jin. Because of his good nature that tends to make people look at Robin as weak. Robin has a caring, helpful, and kind personality.

Episode 1 51:45 (Robin ran towards the strangled Jang Ha Na on rooftop of the hospital)

Episode 1 51:56 (Robin fight the mysterious man who strangled Jang Ha Na)

In episode 1 (48:05-53:15), Jang Ha Na is going to the hospital to see Geo Seo Jin. Jang Ha Na wants to talk about the circus contract that Geo Seo Jin unilaterally terminates. She enters the hospital secretly with a rope. Then, she enters the hospital through the random window. It turns out that the window Jang Ha Na enters is the window of Doctor Kang's private room, which is Geo Seo Jin's doctor. In the room, Jang Ha Na is seeing Doctor Kang faint and blood splattering around his head. Suddenly, Jang Ha Na realizes that someone is standing behind her. Because of panic and shock, Jang Ha Na immediately runs from the room to the hospital corridor.

When Jang Ha Na runs in the hospital corridor, Geo Seo Jin accidentally sees Jang Ha Na. Seeing Jang Ha Na running for help and being chased by a mysterious man makes Geo Seo Jin panic. He is then running to find help and a safe place. Geo Seo Jin is then running into the elevator. Jang Ha Na sees Geo Seo Jin enter the elevator then asking Geo Seo Jin for help to get into it. Geo Seo Jin is then pushing Jang Ha Na out because the mysterious man is very close. Moreover, Geo Seo Jin is concerned with the safety of himself, who has a weak heart.

Geo Seo Jin's heart rate is increasing to 150, and Geo Seo Jin is starting to lose consciousness. When Geo Seo Jin loses consciousness, he changes his personality to Robin and looks physically fit. He took off his glasses and took off his coat. Robin is then seeing Jang Ha Na, whom the mysterious man catches on the hospital roof. She is strangled by him. Robin, who sees that, then runs to Jang Ha Na and beats the man. When he hits the man, Jang Ha Na falls from the hospital roof. Robin realizes that, then jumps from the hospital roof and hugs Jang Ha Na. They then fall into the hospital's pool of water together.

After the incident, Jang Ha Na wakes up in the hospital and Geo Seo Jin. Geo Seo Jin is unconscious for six hours. Geo Seo Jin does not even remember anything. He only remembers that his heart rate reached 150. After that, he forget. Then Kwon Young says that he saved Jang Ha Na. Geo Seo Jin is shocked and recalls what Doctor Kang said. "Robin is Geo Seo Jin's Hyde. Robin was born from the guilt felt by Geo Seo Jin and thus Robin who saves and protects," said Doctor Kang. Geo Seo Jin then realizes that Robin has returned to his life.

In the scene above, Robin's id is seen when he saves Jang Ha Na. In the scene where a mysterious man is chasing Jang Ha Na, Robin runs towards Jang Ha Na and fights with the mysterious man to escape Jang Ha Na. However, the mysterious man pushes Jang Ha Na from the rooftop and makes Jang Ha Na falls. Robin then jumps from the rooftop and hugs Jang Ha Na. They then fall into the hospital pool together. While in the pool, Robin is still hugging Jang Ha Na. Robin did this because Robin wants to make sure that Jang Ha Na was okay. Robin's superego in this scene is when Robin jumps from the hospital rooftop to saves Jang Ha Na. In this action, there is no guarantee that Robin can survive. We all know that the hospital's rooftop is very high, and Robin also jumps spontaneously. Robin is willing to risk his life to save others. This proves that Robin's id saves Jang Ha Na by jumping from the hospital rooftop even though it endangers his own life. Robin prioritizes others safety above his safety.

Episode 2 52:42 (Robin save Jang Ha Na from a falling venice lamp)

In episode 2 (51:09-55:58), Jang Ha Na is passing through the Venice room, suddenly the light of the room is falling and almost falls on Jang Ha Na. Geo Seo Jin, who is unconscious, then changing his personality to Robin. Robin is immediately running to Jang Ha Na and hugging and pushing Jang Ha Na from the lamp so that the light does not hit Jang Ha Na.

After they are avoiding the light, Robin confirms Jang Ha Na's condition and says, "Are you okay? Try to check whether it is injured or not". Jang Ha Na is looking at Robin confusingly. Robin then checks Jang Ha Na's body condition again and says "Thank goodness it does not seem like you got hurt. Even so, you have to go to the hospital. Because maybe it is okay now, but you could get hurt."

At the same time, Geo Seo Jin's bodyguards come. One of them realizes that it is not Geo Seo Jin but Robin. Geo Seo Jin's bodyguards is preparing to secure Robin. Robin, who is realizing this, immediately running away from them.

In the following scene, Robin's id is shown when he runs towards Jang Ha Na and hugs Jang Ha Na. So that she avoids the light. As Jang Ha Na is walking past the Venice room, she stops right under the light. Geo Seo Jin, who is seeing the lamp is about to falling, then shouting to Jang Ha Na with the aim of warning. Geo Seo Jin then changes character to Robin when the light start to falls on Jang Ha Na. Robin then spontaneously runs to Jang Ha Na and pushes her so that Jang Ha Na would avoid the lamp. When he push Jang Ha Na, Robin also hugs her to ensure Jang Ha Na's safety.

Robin's id in this scene is to saving Jang Ha Na when the light is about to falling on Jang Ha Na. Robin puts his safety aside and puts Jang Ha Na's safety first. He risked his life while doing this stunt. Because there is no guarantee that Robin will getting hit by the light. Robin also hugs Jang Ha Na when pushes her so that if the lamp fall, it will hit Robin first. This proves that Robin cares about the safety of others before his safety.

Episode 3 47:03 (Robin helped Jang Ha Na down from the second floor by caught her)

In episode 3 (46:18-47:13), Robin calls Kwon Young, Geo Seo Jin's assistant, to ask where Jang Ha Na is. Robin does this because he is worrying about the condition of Jang Ha Na, who had been electrocuted. Jang Ha Na who is hearing Robin's voice from downstairs then calling Robin. Jang Ha Na is then waving at Robin from the second floor. She then intends to go downstairs. Just as Jang Ha Na is about to stepping out of the window, Geo Seo Jin's house alarm is starting to sound. Robin, who is seeing it, immediately saying "Jump!". Jang Ha Na is then jumping up, and Robin catching her from below.

In the scene above, Robin's id is shown when Robin looks for Jang Ha Na and calls Young Chang to make sure Jang Ha Na is okay. This happens because Robin has great empathy for others. Because Jang Ha Na just got hit by a stun gun, Robin just wants to visit Jang Ha Na to see how she is now. Robin's ego is also shown in the scene when Jang Ha Na wants to get down from the second floor and jumps. Robin helps Jang Ha Na by catching Jang Ha Na so she can get down safely. Robin does this because Robin has high empathy and cares about his surroundings.

Episode 4 48:57 (Robin comforted Jang Ha Na by made a silly expression)

In episode 4 (45:45-49:12), Jang Ha Na is in the wonderland circus hall. She is walking while reminiscing the memory of her father in the hall. Suddenly Robin calls her and asks where she is now. When Jang Ha Na says that she is in the circus room, Robin hangs up the phone. Jang Ha Na is confusing by Robin's behavior, and when she is seeing the door of the circus, Robin is already there. Jang Ha Na says, "What the heck? You did not say anything and immediately hung up on." Robin then approaches Jang Ha Na. He realizes that Jang Ha Na had just cried.

Then Robin tries to cheer up Jang Ha Na by wears circus glasses. Jang Ha Na smiles, and Robin still tries to comfort Jang Ha Na by makes silly expressions.

Jang Ha Na then laughs at Robin's behavior. Robin then says, "Now you are crazy if you laugh and cry .. the problem must be big."

In the scene above, the main character as Robin, shows his id. This id shown by the scene when Robin finds out that Jang Ha Na looks sad in the circus room, and he finds out that Jang Ha Na misses her father. Robin's id in this scene has high empathy for others, especially Jang Ha Na. Robin comforts Jang Ha Na with what he can. Like makes silly faces and tries on circus glasses. Robin does this until Jang Ha Na smile. With Robin's simple effort to comforts Jang Ha Na, who is sad, it shows Robin's id has high empathy for others.

In episode 4 (54:12 - 57:43), Geo Seo Jin wakes up because the sun comes into his room. He is complaining about his body aches and wondering what Robin had done last night with his body. Then Geo Seo Jin sees a note beside the table that says "sorry." Geo Seo Jin, feels that something wrong, gets out of bed and finds out what is happening. He then calls his assistant and says "It is me. I think he did something wrong. He said sorry. It was unusual for him to say sorry. Quickly find out the reason." At the same time, Geo Seo Jin is seeing through CCTV that Jang Ha Na and her two friends are enter Geo Seo Jin's house.

Geo Seo Jin then quickly approaches them. Jang Ha Na smiles broadly and says thank you for extends the circus contract. Geo Seo Jin shocks and checks the circus contract that Jang Ha Na brings with him. There is Geo Seo Jin's signature in there. Jang Ha Na then says, "When I was about to vacate the office this morning, I found it. I was surprised to find it there. I did not think you changed your mind.

However, why did you make an 80-page contract with 208 articles?” The contract also shows that Jang Ha Na is receiving house compensation for her safety as a witness to the missing doctor Kang case.

The scene above shows that Robin was signed an extension contract for the wonderland circus where Jang Ha Na works. Moreover, Robin added housing compensation to Jang Ha Na to make it easier to monitor Jang Ha Na's whereabouts and make sure Jang Ha Na fine. So Robin wrote in the contract that Jang Ha Na could stay at Geo Seo Jin's house as compensation for the residence.

At first, Geo Seo Jin wants to break the circus contract because he feels the wonderland circus was not growing and wasting a lot of budgets. However, it could be fixed if Geo Seo Jin allows the circus wonderland to develop. If the wonderland circus is repaired, both parties, Geo Seo Jin and the wonderland circus workers, will benefit greatly. Wonderland's income could increase with circus repairs, and circus workers could still make a living. However, in reality, Geo Seo Jin always does not want to know and accepts the result.

Robin's id, who cares and has enormous empathy for everyone, makes Robin prevent Geo Seo Jin's plan to stop the wonderland circus contract. When Robin's character appears at night, he secretly signs the circus contract because Robin's Ego has enormous empathy for everyone and the fate of all the wonderland circus workers who depend on this work. In addition, if Geo Seo Jin unilaterally terminates the Wonderland Circus contract, many Wonderland Circus workers lost their primary income. This proves that Robin's id cares for others and has an enormous empathy. Therefore he secretly grants a contract extension and makes a contract that makes it easier for Wonderland Circus workers to continue work and develop in their work.

Episode 5 36:19 (Robin carried the unconscious Jang Ha Na to the hospital)

In episode 5 (35:38-36:40), Robin's car is having an accident because it is hitting the snow. When Robin realizes that he has an accident, he immediately confirms Jang Ha Na's condition beside him. Robin is shaking Jang Ha Na's body, but Jang Ha Na still does not respond. Robin is quickly calling an ambulance and reporting the incident, and he is asking where the nearest clinic is.

Robin is then carrying Jang Ha Na to the nearest clinic. After arriving at the clinic, Robin is immediately asking the Doctor for help. "Help us, and I think she is passed out!" Robin is saying that. After Jang Ha Na is treating by the Doctor. Robin is then passing out, and he is unconscious.

In this scene, Jang Ha Na and Robin have an accident together. When Robin realizes that their car had hits something, Robin immediately confirms Jang Ha Na's condition. Moreover, when he finds out that Jang Ha Na has faint, Robin then immediately calls the ambulance and asks where the nearest clinic is so that Jang Ha Na could get proper treatment. Robin then carries Jang Ha Na to the nearest clinic and does not care about her body condition, which just has an accident. When Jang Ha Na in the Doctor's hands, Robin fainted from exhaustion and shock from the accident.

The id of this scene is when Robin more concerns with Jang Ha Na's safety than his safety after the accident. He immediately checks Jang Ha Na's condition and does not confirm his condition at all. Because he is too busy taking care of Jang Ha Na, who is fainting from calling the ambulance. He runs and carries Jang Ha Na to the clinic and takes care of Jang Ha Na to see a doctor. Because of that, he sacrifices himself and passes out from exhaustion and shock from the accident. This shows Robin's id, which prioritizes the safety of others rather than his safety.

In episode 6 (51:08-52:24), After receiving a call from Woo Jung, Robin goes to Woo Jung asks for an explanation of what Woo Jung meant. Robin asks about whether Jang Ha Na confessed her feelings to Robin, "What do you mean? Who confessed? Ha Na confessed to me? Who refused? Who? I rejected Ha Na?" Robin says. Because Robin looks confuse, Woo Jung then talks about this at the dinner table.

Woo Jung then tells about Jang Ha Na expressed her feelings for Robin, "You left a message, and left. Without saying anything. Oppa, you do not have to do that for a girl. It is excruciating. Even though I am sure you did that for me" Woo Jung says. Robin then realizes what had to happen. It seems that Geo Seo Jin makes Robin not know about the incident. Woo Jung then says, "What? I think he rejected it. However, it is different if he forgets. It is even worse. "After Robin is knowing the details of the story, Robin then saying goodbye.

Robin then looks for Jang Ha Na. Robin meets Jang Ha Na in the park to explain everything and apologize. "I remember now, and I remember what I do not remember. Forgive me. To leave you like that. And for what I did in the garage yesterday. I must look like an asshole. It would help if you cursed me. However, I do not remember that. I do not pretend I do not know. I know even now I still look like an asshole to you. However, please, believe me, Ha Na," Robin says that even though Jang Ha Na still hurts and cannot forgive what Robin did.

In the scene above, Robin did not know anything about Jang Ha Na, who confessed her feelings. Robin finds out about it by accident because of Woo Jung. When he finds out about this, Robin immediately asks Woo Jung for the details. After Robin knows that Jang Ha Na confessed her feelings to him, Robin rushes to meet Jang Ha Na. He apologizes for what happened. Robin's id in this scene is when he apologizes to Jang Ha Na. Robin felt guilty and thought about how Jang Ha Na feels. Therefore, he apologizes to Jang Ha Na to show that Robin feels guilty for what happened and makes Jang Ha Na hurt.

In episode 7 (00:48 - 01:26), Robin talks to Geo Seo Jin through the computer. They are using to record videos and transmit them to each other. So they can communicate. Robin is furious because Geo Seo Jin, without permission, opened Robin's private messages and deleted the messages without Robin's knowledge. This makes Robin misunderstand Jang Ha Na and hurt Jang Ha Na's feelings. Robin also gives Geo Seo Jin advice to not play with Jang Ha Na's feelings “When a woman confesses her feelings, and she is being ignored how do you think she feels? Isn't that right? How can an asshole like you understand? You take delight in the suffering of others. It is an only pleasure in your life. Do not ever play around like that again. This is the last warning.” Robin says.

In the scene above, Robin is shown communicating with Geo Seo Jin with a computer. Robin advises Geo Seo Jin on what Geo Seo Jin has done. Geo Seo Jin hurts Jang Ha Na's feelings by disappeared after Jang Ha Na confessed her feelings to Robin. Geo Seo Jin even deleted the message that Jang Ha Na sent to Robin so that Robin would not know what happened. In this scene, Robin's id is shown when Robin advises Geo Seo Jin not to play with Jang Ha Na's feelings. Robin does this because Robin has high empathy and cares about the feelings of others.

In episode 8 (17:14-18:38), Geo Seo Jin is sick and lying weakly in bed. Jang Ha Na, who is knowing this, is worrying and looking at Geo Seo Jin's condition. Jang Ha Na then gives Geo Seo Jin a drink to makes Geo Seo Jin feels better. However, all of Jang Ha Na's reasonable efforts are vehemently reject by Geo Seo Jin, and he kicks Jang Ha Na out. “Get Out!” he says. Jang Ha Na, who is annoyed to see Geo Seo Jin, who refuses to help, says, “I am serious! Stop acting. You are fine. People cannot always be tense. You have to learn to relax. You are always tense and acting strong. Everything is fine. That is why you fell ill, and your body was in pain. Have you had dinner?". Jang Ha Na, who had been kicked out and ignored by Geo Seo Jin, does not give up and repeatedly offers food to Geo Seo Jin. Geo Seo Jin then gets angry and kicks Jang Ha Na out again rudely "Get Out! I said, get out!" Jang Ha Na then gives up and leaves the room.

Geo Seo Jin, who is lying sick, falling asleep. He then wakes up and changes his personality to Robin. Jang Ha Na, who had been kicked out and rejected by Geo Seo Jin, still makes tea for Geo Seo Jin. Jang Ha Na then delivers the tea to Geo Seo Jin's room. Jang Ha Na says, "Director Goo, I left the sweet tea at the door. Drink it!". Robin, who hears that then reply "All right."

When Geo Seo Jin sick, Jang Ha Na is very worrying for Geo Seo Jin. Jang Ha Na asks about Geo Seo Jin's condition and offers to help him, like if Geo Seo Jin hungry. Jang Ha Na intends to take care of Geo Seo Jin, who is lying weak. However, all of Jang Ha Na's reasonable efforts are reject by Geo Seo Jin. When Geo Seo Jin falls asleep, he changes his personality to Robin. Jang Ha Na secretly makes Geo Seo Jin a tea. So that Geo Seo Jin will be better. Jang Ha Na knocks on Geo Seo Jin's door softly and says that she brings a tea. Geo Seo Jin, who is changing his personality to Robin because he wakes up, answers Jang Ha Na's offers.

Robin's id is when Jang Ha Na makes tea for Geo Seo Jin, who is sick, and he answers Jang Ha Na's words. Robin does this because he appreciates what Jang Ha Na had done to Geo Seo Jin. Robin replies, "All right," and it makes Jang Ha Na feel appreciates.

In episode 9 (6:41-8:59), Jang Ha Na is doing hypnotherapy with Dr. Yoon to remember who the suspect of someone who kidnaps Dr. Kang. Robin takes part in this therapy to accompany Jang Ha Na. During the therapy process, Jang Ha Na has difficulty remembers the suspect. This is because Jang Ha Na still has trauma from the incident. Dr. Yoon forces Jang Ha Na to remember the incident and Jang Ha Na looks very depressed. Robin who sees Jang Ha Na like that, looks worry. Robin even starts to gets up from his seat and approaches Jang Ha Na when Jang Ha Na seems to has difficulty breathing. Dr. Yoon then stops him, and Robin brushes Dr. Yoon's hand away. Robin then sits beside Jang Ha Na and rubs Jang Ha Na's hand to calms Jang Ha Na. He also wipes Jang Ha Na's tears.

Robin's id in this scene is when Robin gets up from his seat and approaches Jang Ha Na when Jang Ha Na looks depressed in her hypnosis session. Robin also rubbes Jang Ha Na's hand and wipes Jang Ha Na's tears to calm down Jang Ha Na. Robin does this because Robin has high empathy for others. Especially when he sees someone who looks depresses and cries, Robin's id makes Robin calm the person who lookes depressed. So because of that, he rubbes Jang Ha Na's hand and wipes Jang Ha Na's tears.

Episode 10 36:21 (Robin break the window so Jang Ha Na can get out of the warehouse and sacrificed his hand)

In episode 10 (31:39-31:41), Geo Seo Jin traps in the warehouse where Geo Seo Jin was kidnapped when he was a child. Jang Ha Na then tries to enters the warehouse to saves Geo Seo Jin there. After Jang Ha Na unties the rope that ties Geo Seo Jin, she tries to find a way out. However, all the doors suddenly lock, and poison gas then appears in the room. Jang Ha Na panic and then runs to Geo Seo Jin to make sure he is okay. Because Geo Seo Jin's physique is weak, Jang Ha Na becomes very worry. Geo Seo Jin, who realizes that there is poison gas, then covers his nose so he would not inhale the gas. He is then looking for objects around him that could save him. As he is looking around, he finding a cupboard containing a mask.

Seeing Jang Ha Na is starting not to breathe, Geo Seo Jin then giving the mask to Jang Ha Na. Geo Seo Jin asks Robin for help because he no longer strong. Then because of running out of breath Geo Seo Jin passing out. He then changes his personality to Robin. Robin is then immediately looking for a way out for them. Robin broke the window so they can get out. Robin's hand is bleeding profusely from breaking the glass. Then they came out of the window.

The id in this episode is when Geo Seo Jin gives Jang Ha Na his only mask. Even though in this condition, Geo Seo Jin also has difficulty breathes and needs help. Especially with Geo Seo Jin's physical condition, which is weaker than people in general. Geo Seo Jin does this because he starts to love Jang Ha Na and wants to makes sure that Jang Ha Na safe. Geo Seo Jin begins to puts his needs aside and put the needs of others first.

In addition, the id in this scene is also seen when Robin tries to find a way out for Jang Ha Na. He hits the glass so there was a hole and they could get out, and so Robin's hand has cuts and bleeds. He does this so that Jang Ha Na can get out of the warehouse as soon as possible. Robin sacrificed his hand so they could get out of there.

4.1.2 Ego

The ego is above the water and made up part of the iceberg. This is the part that rationalizes and regulates thoughts and behaviors involved mainly with the external world (Rucks, Erick 2004). The ego is also used as a defense mechanism. The nine different parts of the Ego defense mechanisms include repression, displacement, sublimation, rationalization, projection, reaction formation, denial, undoing, and regression (Spielman, Ron 2004).

The ego is a component of personality that is responsible for dealing with reality. According to Freud, the ego develops from the id and ensures that the id's impulses can be expressed in acceptable ways in the real world. The ego functions in both the conscious, preconscious, and unconscious minds. The ego aims to prevent stresses from occurring until a suitable object is found for satisfying needs. In other words, the ego's function is to filter out the impulses that the Id wants to satisfy based on reality. It is like a man on a horse's back, having to control a greater horsepower. The ego is the man, and the horse is his id.

In contrast, the rider tries to control the horse with his strength. Often, a rider must lead his horse where he wants to go so as not to be separated from his horse. So, in the same way, the ego is accustomed to converting the id's will into action as if its own.

An example of ego in everyday life is when someone is so sweaty after the gym workout. She wants to change her clothes right there in the car. However, she knows that the other people around her will disapprove, so she waits until she is in the restroom to change. The second example is when a girl wants to borrow her sister's shoes, but she knows that her sister will be angry if she takes them without asking. So, she asks her sister if she could wear them. In short ego is something that public know and can be seen by public.

On these drama ego shown on Geo Seo Jin personality as director of Wonderland park. Geo Seo Jin is required to be strong and not look weak because he is his father's only hope as Wonderland Park's successor. This makes Geo Seo Jin a selfish, self-absorbed, cold, and indifferent person. The examples of Geo Seo

Jin's ego on this drama can we look from the conversations and actions of the drama below;

Episode 1 12:36 (A visitor asks Geo Seo Jin for help when a Gorilla comes)

Episode 1 12:41 Geo Seo Jin bite the visitor so Geo Seo Jin could run away from the Gorilla)

Episode 1 12:50 (Geo Seo Jin push the visitor towards the Gorilla)

In episode 1 (11:49-17:54), an incident happens at the Wonderland amusement park. A gorilla suddenly escapes from its cage and runs towards visitors. The visitors are panic and run to save themselves. At the same time, a female visitor is running towards Geo Seo Jin and asking to be save from the gorilla because the gorilla is already chasing her. The female visitor is grabbing Geo Seo Jin's hand and asking for help. The woman says, "Ahjussi, please save me!". Geo Seo In, who is seeing the gorilla starting to approach them and then trying to release the visitor's hand. But the visitor still asks for help and pulls Geo Seo Jin's hand. Geo Seo Jin then bites the woman's hand to let her go. When the gorilla gets closer, Geo Seo Jin pushes the woman towards the gorilla and immediately runs.

Geo Seo Jin is running and get rid of everything that is bothering him. He then looks for a safe place and tries to climb into the gift shop. "Help me!" Geo Seo Jin orders all his bodyguards so he could climb to safety.

In the scene above, Geo Seo Jin's ego is feeling threatened, so he trying to save himself without caring about the safety of others. In the scene where the gorilla in Wonderland escapes, Geo Seo Jin panick and tries to find a safe place where he protect from gorilla attacks. He even pushes the people who got in his way. When a woman asks Geo Seo Jin for help, he feels uncomfortable and tries to let the woman go by bites her. When the gorilla starteds approachess Geo Seo Jin, he pushes the woman in front of him to gives it to the gorilla. In order to save himself, he climbs up the gift shop and askes his bodyguard to help him climb quickly do not care if the people around him are safe or not. This is a form of Geo Seo Jin's protection against himself.

In episode 1 (23:44-26:01), Geo Seo Jin is inviting Jang Ha Na to his private office to meet. Jang Ha Na thought that Geo Seo Jin invites her to discuss the gorilla escape incident. However, it turns out that Geo Seo Jin invites Jang Ha Na there to inform her that the circus at Wonderland disbands and all the members are fired. Geo Seo Jin says, "Your circus members are fired," he says that without consults Jang Ha Na as the circus head and decides it by himself.

Jang Ha Na does not accepts it and still wonderong why the circus members are fired because their circus contracts still not finish yet. Geo Seo Jin says that it is because the wonderland circus had poor performance, poor parades, and low ticket sales. So Geo Seo Jin is choosing to pay the contract fee instead of continuing their circus because Geo Seo Jin did not feel the benefit. However, Jang Ha Na still insists on continuing the contract and promises to repair the circus because it is the only livelihood for all its members. However still, Geo Seo Jin does not care about their fate, and he still wants to cancel the contract. Jang Ha Na is mad about Geo

Seo Jin's selfish behavior and saying, "Look, Director Goo Seo Jin. How could someone be so selfish and make such a sudden decision like this?" and Geo Seo Jin answering with "Because I have the power to do it."

In the scene above, Geo Seo Jin's ego is selfish, and he thinks about his benefits without caring about others. He terminated the circus contract unilaterally even though the circus contract had not ended yet. Geo Seo Jin did it because the circus in Wonderland did not develop and did not provide many benefits for Wonderland. He does not care about the fate of the circus workers who depend on this work for their life. Geo Seo Jin only cares about himself and his business without giving solutions to the wonderland circus and firing them all. Even though Jang Ha Na begged and asked to consider Geo Seo Jin's decision, he persisted in his stance. Geo Seo Jin's selfish ego was proven when Jang Ha Na asked why Geo Seo Jin had to do this, and he replied, "because I have the power to do it."

In episode 1 (28:04-30:04), Jang Ha Na is visiting Geo Seo Jin's office to show a video about Geo Seo Jin's treatment to Wonderland visitors during the gorilla escape incident. In the video, Geo Seo Jin can be seen bites and pushes female visitors towards the Gorilla. Jang Ha Na brings the video to threaten that if Geo Seo Jin did not continue the contract, she will spread the video to the internet. Geo Seo Jin, who is seeing the video, looks shocked and saying "I do not know... it has gone this far. I did not know that I was acting like this." Geo Seo Jin seems to reflect on his behavior in the video and curses himself. Geo Seo Jin then invites Jang Ha Na to continue the contract. However, the cellphone contains the video remains with Geo Seo Jin, and he does not want Jang Ha Na to take it. Because Jang Ha Na sees Geo Seo Jin's face that looks regretful, she feels sorry for Geo Seo Jin. Geo Seo Jin then asks Jang Ha Na to come out so he can reflect on his own.

When Jang Ha Na leaves the office, she runs into Geo Seo Jin's assistant, Kwon Young. Kwon Young already received a call from Geo Seo Jin about the renewal of the circus contract, and he is asking Kwon Young to prepare a contract paper. When Kwon Young enters Geo Seo Jin's room, Geo Seo Jin asks Kwon Young to delete the video and cancel the contract. He says, "Delete the video clip on the cellphone and return it to her. I am not the type to get a bad image with a bad video clip like that."

Kwon Young becomes confused and wonders Geo Seo Jin's intentions. It turns out that Geo Seo Jin is only pretending to contemplate his behavior so that Jang Ha Na feels sorry for him and give the cellphone to him.

The scene above shows that Geo Seo Jin's ego is concerned with his image as a wonderland park director. This can be seen when Geo Seo Jin tries to delete a video that shows him biting and pushing wonderland visitors. This proves that a good self-image in the eyes of Geo Seo Jin is essential. Therefore he does not want the video to be spread and known by the public. He even lies to Jang Ha Na to extend the contract to make sure the video disappears. Geo Seo Jin's selfish nature and his actions of deleting videos are the Ego of Geo Seo Jin, who wants to have a good image. Also, his decision not to continue the contract is Geo Seo Jin's Ego, who is concerned with himself and his business profits without caring about others.

Episode 1 40:20 (Jang Ha Na asked Geo Seo Jin for help and asked to enter the elevator when a mysterious man chased her)

Episode 1 49:25 (Geo Seo Jin pushed Jang Ha Na out of the elevator)

In episode 1 (48:05-53:15), Jang Ha Na is going to the hospital to see Geo Seo Jin. Jang Ha Na wants to talk about the circus contract that Geo Seo Jin unilaterally terminates. She enters the hospital secretly with a rope. Then, she enters the hospital through the random window. It turns out that the window Jang Ha Na enters is the window of Doctor Kang's private room, which is Geo Seo Jin's doctor. In the room, Jang Ha Na is seeing Doctor Kang faint and blood splattering around his head. Suddenly, Jang Ha Na realizes that someone is standing behind her. Because of panic and shock, Jang Ha Na immediately runs from the room to the hospital corridor.

When Jang Ha Na runs in the hospital corridor, Geo Seo Jin accidentally sees Jang Ha Na. Seeing Jang Ha Na running for help and being chased by a mysterious man makes Geo Seo Jin panic. He is then running to find help and a safe place. Geo Seo Jin is then running into the elevator. Jang Ha Na sees Geo Seo Jin enter the elevator then asking Geo Seo Jin for help to get into it. Geo Seo Jin is then pushing Jang Ha Na out because the mysterious man is very close. Moreover, Geo Seo Jin is concerned with the safety of himself, who has a weak heart.

Geo Seo Jin's heart rate is increasing to 150, and Geo Seo Jin is starting to lose consciousness. When Geo Seo Jin loses consciousness, he changes his personality to Robin and looks physically fit. He took off his glasses and took off his coat. Robin is then seeing Jang Ha Na, whom the mysterious man catches on the hospital roof. She is strangled by him. Robin, who sees that, then runs to Jang Ha Na and beats the man. When he hits the man, Jang Ha Na falls from the hospital roof. Robin realizes that, then jumps from the hospital roof and hugs Jang Ha Na. They then fall into the hospital's pool of water together.

After the incident, Jang Ha Na wakes up in the hospital and Geo Seo Jin. Geo Seo Jin is unconscious for six hours. Geo Seo Jin does not even remember anything. He only remembers that his heart rate reached 150. After that, he forget. Then Kwon

Young says that he saved Jang Ha Na. Geo Seo Jin is shocked and recalls what Doctor Kang said. "Robin is Geo Seo Jin's Hyde. Robin was born from the guilt felt by Geo Seo Jin and thus Robin who saves and protects," said Doctor Kang. Geo Seo Jin then realizes that Robin has returned to his life.

Geo Seo Jin's ego in this scene feels threatened. When he is seeing Jang Ha Na being chased by a mysterious man, he thought that the mysterious man might hurt him too. In addition, Geo Seo Jin's ego is his selfish nature. Therefore when he sees Jang Ha Na tries to follow him into the elevator to be save, he prevents Jang Ha Na from enters. Because Geo Seo Jin's ego is selfish and thinks about his safety, he thinks there is no time to save others, and save others is too risky for Geo Seo Jin's safety. So he ensures his safety by avoid attempts that waste time and increase his chances of harm, such as rescues Jang Ha Na or being near Jang Ha Na.

In episode 2 (21:58-23:30), After Doctor Kang's disappears, Jang Ha Na is being investigate because she is the only witness of the incident. However, when investigates, Jang Ha Na is diagnosed to have PTSD (temporary memory loss) due to the trauma of the incident. This makes Jang Ha Na not remember who the suspect of Doctor Kang's kidnap is.

Geo Seo Jin, who still has business with Doctor Kang, cannot believe that Jang Ha Na has lost her memory. Doctor Kang is essential to Geo Seo Jin's life because she is the only person who can cure his illness. Geo Seo Jin asks Jang Ha Na that it is true if she forgets who the suspect is. Jang Ha Na, who hear what Geo Seo Jin says is felt offense. Because Geo Seo Jin thought sheliess. Geo Seo Jin then asks the detective to get Jang Ha Na hypnotic treatment to makes Jang Ha Na remember who is the person behind the kidnapping of Doctor Kang. Geo Seo Jin does this without asking Jang Ha Na's prior approval.

The scene above shows that Geo Seo Jin's ego is selfish and prioritizes his own needs. When doctor Kang was kidnapped, and Jang Ha Na becomes the only witness. But she forget what the suspect looks like due to trauma and shock. Because Doctor Kang is a precious person to Geo Seo Jin and the only Doctor Kang who can cure Geo Seo Jin's illness, he forces Jang Ha Na to remember the suspect face regardless of Jang Ha Na, who is still in shock about what had happened. Geo Seo Jin also does not care about whether Jang Ha Na's mental health is ready for it or not. Another proof is when Geo Seo Jin asks the detectives to hypnotize Jang Ha Na without Jang Ha Na's prior approval for Geo Seo Jin's own needs, finds Doctor Kang.

In episode 4 (18:00-20:24), Geo Seo Jin is attending the inauguration of the Seaworld. Jang Ha Na disguises herself as the mascot of the Seaworld and insists on talks to Geo Seo Jin about the wonderland circus contract. Because Geo Seo Jin decides to completely fire all the circus members and stop the circus in Wonderland, he chooses to pay compensation money to all members rather than keep them employed. He does this because Geo Seo Jin feels that since Jang Ha Na has become the head of the circus in his life, everything becomes complicated, especially with the reappearance of Robin, his second personality.

Jang Ha Na then pleads to Geo Seo Jin and apologizes if she has something wrong with Geo Seo Jin. Jang Ha Na does this so that Geo Seo Jin wants to continue the circus contract. However, Geo Seo Jin still does not care and decides to fire them all. Geo Seo Jin insists on avoiding Jang Ha Na, so he decided to get rid of things that relate to Jang Ha Na.

In the scene above, Geo Seo Jin's ego is selfish. He feels that since Jang Ha Na's appearance, his life has become chaotic. Therefore he decides to fire all the circus members and tries to get rid of Jang Ha Na in his life. If there is no circus in Wonderland, then Jang Ha Na does not need to go to Wonderland. Moreover, she will automatically have nothing to do with Geo Seo Jin's life. No matter what price he has to pay but Geo Seo Jin is adamant about firing and getting rid of Jang Ha Na in his life. This proof by Geo Seo Jin, who fired the circus members unilaterally. Even though Jang Ha Na apologizes, Geo Seo Jin does not care.

In episode 6 (00:11-01:33), Geo Seo Jin pretends to be Robin because of an incident. Geo Seo Jin and Jang Ha Na are sitting together in front of the bonfire. Because Jang Ha Na feels cold and repeatedly sneezes, Geo Seo Jin does not want to catch Jang Ha Na's sneeze then gives Jang Ha Na a blanket. Jang Ha Na, who is drunk at the time, suddenly unconsciously confesses her feelings to Robin. Jang Ha Na says, "Robin, you are a good person. That is why I like you. I like you". Geo Seo Jin, who heard that, then shocks, same with Jang Ha Na. She panics and runs away from Geo Seo Jin. Jang Ha Na then curses herself for doing something stupid.

The next day, Jang Ha Na wakes up awake and sober. She then remembers what happened last night, and she feels shy. Jang Ha Na's friend who looks Jang Ha Na's behavior then confuse. Jang Ha Na's friend says to her that Robin gives her a letter before he goes. In that letter, Robin says "Ha Na, I have something to take care of, so I will go first." Jang Ha Na, who finds out that Robin left her after last night, becomes more shy and runs to the fields to vent her shame.

In the scene above, Geo Seo Jin's ego is not thinking about other people's feelings and only cares about himself. When Jang Ha Na drunk and confess her feelings to Robin, whom Geo Seo Jin plays by accident, Geo Seo Jin does not even responds to Jang Ha Na's feelings. He just silent and went straight to his work the next day by writes a letter that he has business and has to leaves sooner. This scene shows that Geo Seo Jin does not empathize with others, especially those who have feelings for him. Moreover, he did not think about Jang Ha Na's feelings as a woman who just confess her love. It is possible that Jang Ha Na could be hurt, but Geo Seo Jin does not care and still puts her work first. At least says thanks or something, but Geo Seo Jin still did not say that. With Geo Seo Jin runs away and Geo Seo Jin's attitude towards Jang Ha Na, who just confess his feelings, it proves that Geo Seo Jin's ego in the following scene is not thinking about other people's feelings.

In episode 6 (19:07-22:26), When Geo Seo Jin is getting ready to sleep, Robin's cellphone is suddenly ringing. For some reason, Geo Seo Jin curious about the message on Robin's cellphone. He tries so hard to ignore it, but he ends up tries to open the phone in the end. With much effort, Geo Seo Jin tries to open the passcode but still fails. Finally, Geo Seo Jin opens the CCTV and watches for footage where Robin has opened his cellphone. After gets the passcode, Geo Seo Jin then opens all Robin's messages. The messages are messages from Jang Ha Na, which contain;

(Episode 6 21:14-22:00)

"You came back well?"

"Last night, I must have crossed the line after drinking too much."

"But this time, it is not my fault. It is your fault, Robin."

"Why are you so good at making people misunderstand."

"What is this? I even confessed my feelings. Forget it"

"Forget everything, and next time meet each other, stay comfortable."

When Geo Seo Jin opens Jang Ha Na's message, Jang Ha Na already knows that the message had been read with a read mark on the message. Jang Ha Na then looks panick, and she waits for Robin's response. On the other hand, Geo Seo Jin opens the message and then deletes all of the messages. So it looks like Jang Ha Na had never sent any messages.

The scene above shows that Geo Seo Jin's ego is selfish and prioritizes his own needs. From the beginning, Geo Seo Jin wants Jang Ha Na to disappear from his life because he feels that since he met Jang Ha Na, Geo Seo Jin's life has become more complicated. That was the main reason Geo Seo Jin does not like Robin and Jang Ha Na's closeness. So he does everything he could to keep Robin and Jang Ha Na from getting close. Deletes all of the messages from Jang Ha Na to Robin is one of Geo Seo Jin's efforts to make it happen. By deletes it, Robin will not know anything about the incident where Jang Ha Na confessed her feelings to Robin. This is proof that Geo Seo Jin's ego is selfish and self-interested.

In episode 8 (17:14-18:38), Geo Seo Jin is sick and lying weakly in bed. Jang Ha Na, who is knowing this, is worrying and looking at Geo Seo Jin's condition. Jang Ha Na then gives Geo Seo Jin a drink to makes Geo Seo Jin feels better. However, all of Jang Ha Na's reasonable efforts are vehemently reject by Geo Seo Jin, and he kicks Jang Ha Na out. "Get Out!" he says. Jang Ha Na, who is annoyed to see Geo Seo Jin, who refuses to help, says, "I am serious! Stop acting. You are fine. People cannot always be tense. You have to learn to relax. You are always tense and acting strong. Everything is fine. That is why you fell ill, and your body was in pain. Have you had dinner?". Jang Ha Na, who had been kicked out and ignored by Geo Seo Jin, does not give up and repeatedly offers food to Geo Seo Jin. Geo Seo Jin then gets angry and kicks Jang Ha Na out again rudely "Get Out! I said, get out!" Jang Ha Na then gives up and leaves the room.

The scene above shows that Geo Seo Jin's ego does not care about other people's efforts and does not trust anyone but himself. This shown when Geo Seo Jin lays weakly on the bed, and Jang Ha Na tries to help him recover, but Geo Seo Jin vehemently refuses. Geo Seo Jin even kicks Jang Ha Na out. Geo Seo Jin seems to chooses to handle it himself even though he know he needs help.

4.1.3 Superego

The superego is formed with the use of parental and societal values and morals. These are formed when ego thoughts are internalized by being used for a period. A child will try to grow into what they think is accepted by their society. The superego takes place in the preconscious stage. Things are transformed into the preconscious stage by taking the thoughts and feelings, associating them with word representations to form your memories. (Freud, Sigmund 1962) gives the example of the superego in the Oedipus Complex,

A child gets over the feeling for their parent by turning these preconscious thoughts into what is supposed to be or rational. They realize that they are not supposed to have feelings for their parents, that their parents are married and taken, and soon a girl will try to take after her mother as a boy will try to take after his father.

The superego is a picture of awareness of the community's values and morals, which are planted by customs, religion, parents, and the environment. The superego is conscience, so it provides guidelines for making judgments, whether right or wrong. Superego is present in conscious, preconscious, and unconscious. The id, ego, and superego influence each other. The ego and the superego regulate and direct the id's fulfillment based on the correct rules in society, religion, and good or bad behavior. According to Freud (1962), the superego is not simply a residue of the earliest choice-object id; it also represents an energetic formation-reaction to the objects.

The examples of the superego can be seen as follows. A person knows that he can steal the supplies from work, and no one will know about it. However, this person knows that stealing is wrong, so he decides not to take anything even though he will probably never get caught. In the second example, a person cannot remember the answer to test question number 9, even though she has studied. She can see her friend's answers if she turns her head slightly. When her teacher does not see, she almost cheats, but her conscience stops her because she knows it is wrong. Instead, she guesses the answer and then turns in her paper. In the third example, the cashier only charged the couple for one meal even though they had eaten two. They could have gotten away with only paying for one, but they pointed out the cashier's mistake and offered to pay for both meals. They wanted to be honest, and they knew that the restaurant owner and employees needed to make a living.

In this drama, the superego is depicted by the conditions of business competition in the Wonderland group. Although the business in Wonderland Group is a family business and has been passed down through generations, it is still cruel. Its members do not hesitate to knock each other down to get a higher position.

The examples of superego on Hyde Jekyll and Me drama are written below;

As a family company group, Wonderland Park is owned by many people who are still related by blood to Geo Seo Jin. Moreover, Geo Seo Jin occupies the position of the principal director of Wonderland park because the chairman of Wonderland park is Geo Seo Jin's father. Because it is related to blood relations, the CEO or chairman of the wonderland park will be passed on to Geo Seo Jin. Geo

Seo Jin has been trained since childhood to become a successor because of that.

However, Geo Seo Jin has a rival, namely his cousin, Ryoo Seung Yoen. Ryoo Seung Yoen wants to be the CEO of Wonderland park. Therefore he did everything he could to bring down Geo Seo Jin and make him the CEO.

The efforts of Ryoo Seung Yoen, among others, can be seen in episode 7, where he finds out about Geo Seo Jin through Jang Ha Na. He purposely asked Jang Ha Na to meet in his private room to dig up information about Geo Seo Jin. In episode 8, he looks for information about Geo Seo Jin through detective Naa. He also went to the doctor who hypnotized Jang Ha Na to get information about Geo Seo Jin. He is always there in every critical incident about Geo Seo Jin.

Often Ryoo Seung Yoen tried to bring down Geo Seo Jin in Wonderland Group meetings. In episode 9, he made questions that brought down Geo Seo Jin and discussed Geo Seo Jin's performance. He brought up the incident of Gorilla escaping from Wonderland so that other wonderland members would consider not making Geo Seo Jin CEO due to the questionable security quality of Wonderland. At the second meeting in episode 12, he revealed that Geo Seo Jin has a mental illness. It made the other members consider Geo Seo Jin's continuation to become Wonderland CEO.

The cruelty of the business world in Korea makes Geo Seo Jin not allowed to act weak. Geo Seo Jin is required to have no weaknesses so that people are afraid of him. This is what makes Geo Seo Jin's nature cold and selfish. He is willing to do anything for his own sake. Due to the stereotype that people who have a business and are successful are arrogant, selfish, and cruel people. Moreover, by acting like that, Geo Seo Jin managed to run his family business.

4.2 Reason Why Dual Personalities Appears

The leading cause of dissociative identity disorder is having experienced a traumatic event. About 90% of people with this condition have a history of sexual or severe emotional abuse. Traumatic events can also be related to accidents, natural disasters such as earthquakes, tsunamis, landslides, or war.

Having multiple personalities is often seen as a self-protection mechanism in a person from stressful, stressful, and traumatic situations. That way, people with alternative personalities can fight off the physical or emotional pain that arises from painful experiences.

When the alternative personality controls the sufferer, a boundary is created between him and the traumatic event. These limitations can eventually make the sufferer maintain his function in everyday life as if a traumatic event had never happened.

A variety of things can trigger a personality transition episode, be it a traumatic event that caused it or minor events, such as traffic accidents, experiencing stress or distress, incidents of sexual harassment, or violence.

In this film, Geo Seo Jin tells of having a past trauma because he was kidnapped when he was a child. At that time, Geo Seo Jin was playing with his best friend at the Wonderland haunted house. Suddenly a mysterious man kidnaped them and took them to a warehouse. The kidnapper did this to get a ransom from Geo Seo Jin's father, the owner of Wonderland Park. The kidnapper threatened that if Geo Seo Jin's father did not give a ransom, he would take his son into custody. However, Geo Seo Jin's father refuses to give the ransom and reports to the police anyway.

Geo Seo Jin's best friend, Geo Seo Jin's father driver, tried to escape from the warehouse with Geo Seo Jin. However, when they escape, only Geo Seo Jin can survive because the kidnapper has come again. Geo Seo Jin then immediately saved himself and left his friend. This is what became Geo Seo Jin's childhood trauma and affects his mental health now.

Geo Seo Jin suffers from multiple personalities and has two personalities: Geo Seo Jin's cold, selfish and self-centered personality and Robin's personality. Robin is a kind, caring, and helpful person. These two personalities are opposite. You could say Geo Seo Jin is a bad trait and Robin is a good trait. Because of this disease, Geo Seo Jin has a personal doctor, Doctor Kang. In episode 1, Doctor Kang said that "Robin is Geo Seo Jin's Hyde. Robin was born from the guilt felt by Geo Seo Jin and thus Robin who saves and protects."

In this scene, Geo Seo Jin and Robin switch characters when they start falling asleep. This is evidenced by the scene where Geo Seo Jin falls asleep and wakes up with the Robin character and vice versa. Like in the following scene;

In episode 4 (45:45-49:12), The scene is in Geo Seo Jin's room at night. Then Geo Seo Jin falls asleep. The same night Jang Ha Na is in the wonderland circus hall. She walked while reminiscing the memory with her father in the hall. Suddenly Robin calls her and asks where she is now. When Jang Ha Na said that she was in the circus room, Robin hung up the phone. Jang Ha Na was confused by Robin's behavior, and when she saw the door of the circus, Robin was already there.

In episode 4 (54:12 - 57:43), Geo Seo Jin just woke up because the sun came into his room. He complained about his body aches and wondered what Robin had done last night with his body. Then Geo Seo Jin saw a note beside the table from Robin that said "sorry." Geo Seo Jin, who felt that something was wrong, then got out of bed and found out what happened

Another evidence that shows the character change of notes on the side of Geo Seo Jin's bed table. In the scenes of Episode 4 (54:12 - 57:43) and Episode 3 (54: 16-54:56), there is a note next to Geo Seo Jin's bed with "hi" and "sorry" notes. The note is also written in pictures depicting Robin, who is relaxed and Robin likes to draw. One of the communication media between Geo Seo Jin and Robin characters is the note on the side of the bed.

The scene in episode 5 shows that Geo Seo Jin and Robin switch personalities every 8:00 am. His body becomes Geo Seo Jin at 8:00 am and becomes Robin at 8:00 pm Morning to noon is Geo Seo Jin's time, while the night is Robin's time. This was evidenced by the note on the side of the bed every time he woke up. Notes written with pictures and look casual are Robin notes, and notes that seem indifferent are notes from Geo Seo Jin. An example of a note from Robin such as "The rocket must be returned to its place, so it is not noisy." Robin wakes Geo Seo Jin with a rocket alarm. This shows that Robin is a relaxed person.

Meanwhile, the Note from Geo Seo Jin looks severe and stiff. "Check your message, here is the key to your room" and "Once again you turn on that stupid alarm, you die." Geo Seo Jin only made notes that he felt were necessary to write. The second note, "Once again you turn on that stupid alarm, you die," shows that Geo Seo Jin is a person who is stiff and can not be joked with. Every time they wake up from sleep, the other personality will write notes for the personality that wakes up. Besides that, it was also shown the scene where the camera was shining on the clock beside Geo Seo Jin's bed. Every time they woke up, it was 8:00 am. When Geo Seo Jin woke up, the clock was 8:00 am, and the sky was clear, indicating that the setting time was 8:00 am. When Robin woke up, it was 8:00 am, but the sky and the room looked dark. This shows that the setting time is 08:00 in the evening.

They also switch personalities when one of them is unconscious or too stressed, or depressed. This is shown by the conversation between Geo Seo Jin and Robin in the following scene;

In Episode 5 (09:37-10:00), Robin walks towards his private room. She opened her wardrobe and started talking to her other personality. Geo Seo Jin said to Robin, "Hey, focus! when we lose consciousness, we wake up as other people when we are so stressed that we fall asleep or lose consciousness ". Hearing that, Robin just smiled and looked down on Geo Seo Jin because Geo Seo Jin was too stiff. Geo Seo Jin then said, "Unless we lose consciousness subconsciously. Make sure you are aware of each of our timelines."

Changing bodies when losing consciousness is also shown when Jang Ha Na and Robin have an accident in episode 5. Robin looked depressed and panicked because Jang Ha Na passed out. Because Robin was panicked and depressed, he was unconscious. After Robin woke up, he changed his personality to Geo Seo Jin. It was shown in the scene where Geo Seo Jin woke up, and Jang Ha Na made sure he was okay. When Jang Ha Na called Geo Seo Jin as Robin, he looked shocked and confused. Even Geo Seo Jin asked where he was. Because Geo Seo Jin's last memory was not in JengSeon, Gangwon but his homeroom, this proves that they switched personalities when one of them is unconscious.
