Subject: [JRC] Editor Decision
To: u8qj4m Phoa Marcellino Siva <marcellinosiva@gmail.com>

Dear Authors,

We have decided on your submission to the Journal of Robotics and Control (JRC),

Our decision is: Our decision is: Revision Required

The detail of the comment is as follow. Please follow the editor and reviewer comment or the manuscript will be REJECTED.

Comment of Editor:

>> The Title must fully describe the paper's content in short.

The Abstracts must contain at least 150 words up to 250 words, consist of 2-3 sentences as brief intro about the paper, 2-3 sentences to describe how the problem is solved, and 2-4 sentences showing the results of experiments/simulation, ended with 1-2 sentences as short main conclusions of the work.

The Introduction section must explain the background of the problem and the urgency of the study, which can be proved by providing some previous researches and works, and also how to solve the problem in brief. Also, the contribution and the importance of the research must be stated clearly.

The Method contains an explanation of the research method and the proposed method. This section can include research diagrams, system block diagrams, wiring diagrams, flowcharts and etc.

The Results and Discussion section should provide a comparison to a similar method from previous works and researches.

The minimal References are 30 from an English Journal and using IEEE Style.

>> The Figure, Table, and Equation are some of the most beneficial parts that will be seen first when reading a paper, hence it needs to be made easy to read and as best as possible.

The Image/Figure. It must be in PNG or JPG/JPEG format with 600-1200 dpi. Please don't crop, or use snipping and print-screens tools. Otherwise, the image resolution will be compromised.

The Table. Please use the Insert Table feature.

The Equation. Use the Insert Equation or Ms. Equation. We suggest using 3 columns transparent table to help, and then to make the equation in the middle of the column and the number of the equation on the right-side column.

All the Figures, Tables, and Equations must be given by information, explanation, and analysis, not only included without description.

All the Figures and Tables must cite in the paragraph.

>> Please use Grammarly to check your manuscript. The free Grammarly is enough for fixing some typos and grammar mistakes. Proofreading is recommended to increase the quality of the English language and writing.

>> The author must follow the template journal and the similarity must be under 20% or the manuscript will be REJECTED.

>> The minimal pages is 6. The author will need to revise the manuscript if the pages are below 6.

Comment of Reviewer 1:

1. There is a Bahasa Indonesia word in Figure. Please convert it using English.
2. The references must be published from 2016-2021.
3. Avoid website references.
4. Repair the citation, give the space before the citation.

Comment of Reviewer 2:

all paper structures are good please translate figure 2 and replace figure 3 as process control diagram.
in the tables, use dot for decimal point instead the article have a interesting topic
the paper technically understandable

Please, revise your manuscript based on the editor and reviewer's suggestions, input, and comments. Then, send your revision manuscript using our system journal. Don't make a new submission, please use the previous submission.

Thank you,

Best Regards,
Reza Alayi
JRC Editor.

Dear Contributor of JRC,

We are glad to announce and notify you that the Journal of Robotics and Control (JRC) has been indexed by Scopus recently. You can see the Scopus accepting index on the JRC website.
<https://journal.umy.ac.id/index.php/jrc> or
<https://suggestor.step.scopus.com/progressTracker/?trackingID=12546E985B0ABB06>

Unfortunately, it does not necessarily mean that all published articles of JRC are automatically indexed in Scopus. We need to do manual indexing for all published articles based on the authors' and editor's preferences.

Please let us know if you want your published manuscripts to be included in this manual indexing for Scopus index. If you want to process your article to be indexed in Scopus, the article processing charge of $250 per manuscript will be charged.

However, if you do not prefer your published articles to be indexed in Scopus, it also would be fine and you do not need to pay the article processing charge. Please confirm your preference to us regarding the articles' indexing before August 20, 2021.

You can make your payment via bank transfer to:

Bank Tabungan Pensiunan Nasional (BTPN)

Account holder name: Alfian Maarif

Account number: 90013832566

Swift Code: SUNIIDJA

After you make your payment, please immediately send the payment proof to alfian_maarif@ieee.org cc jrc@umy.ac.id as your payment confirmation.

For additional information, the article processing charge (APC) of $400 per manuscript will be applied for the next JRC publications.

Thank you.

Best regards,
Editor of JRC
