Dear Authors,

Thank you for submitting your article entitled: “The effectiveness of intravaginal fractionated CO2 laser therapy on stress urinary incontinence and urge incontinence.”

Here are some revisions to improve your article:

1. There should be only one Corresponding author and he/she should be mentioned by putting an asterisk
2. Please clarify, is pressure urinary incontinence or stress urinary incontinence abbreviated into SUI?.
3. Please clarify what the first sentence in the first paragraph in the introduction means? If you want to mean something, please put a meaning to make it easier for readers to understand.
4. Paragraph 6 in introduction needs citations, consider adding some citations to strengthen your statement.
5. Please state six questions that were used in the QUID questionnaire in the method section.
6. Please state what are the bivariate statistical analyses used in this study.
7. The parity variable stated in Table 1 is divided as <2 and >3, what if the subject has 2 children? Please
8. Paragraph consists of several sentences. Please avoid writing a paragraph with only one sentence in the paragraph.
9. Please state the limitations of this study at the end of discussion.
10. Please explain the meaning of the asterisk (*) and double asterisk sign (**) in table 1. You may put
11. Please explain what kind of statistical analyses used in table 1, 2 and 3.

Please revise your article and send it back to us in 7 days (August 12th, 2022), and type the revision on the revision letter. Thank you for trusting us with your hard work and we are looking forward to your response.

Warm regards,
