

10TH ASIAN LAW INSTITUTE CONFERENCE
Celebrating Diversity: 10 years of ASLI

Certificate of Attendance

presented to

Mrs. Bernadeta Resti Nurhayati, SH., MHum.

of

Soegijapranata Catholic University

for attending and presenting a paper in the X Asian Law Institute (ASLI) Conference held at National Law School of India University, Bangalore on 23rd and 24th of May, 2013

Professor Andrew Harding
Director, Asian Law Institute
& Centre for Asian Legal Studies
24th May, 2013

Serial No: 127

20 January 2013

To Whom This May Concern

The 10th ASIAN LAW INSTITUTE (ASLI) ANNUAL CONFERENCE ON 23 MAY – 24 MAY 2013

I wish to inform you that Mrs Bernadeta Resti Nurhayati, SH.,MHum. from Soegijapranata Catholic University has been invited as a participant at the 10th Asian Law Institute annual conference in Bangalore hosted by the National Law School of India on 23-24 May 2013.

This conference is envisaged to examine several wide-ranging sub-themes consistent of recent development of law in Asia. More details on the conference can be found at the website:

http://law.nus.edu.sg/asli/10th\_asli\_conf/registration.html

As the conference will be held over two days, he/she is expected to arrive in India before on 23 May 2013 and leave after 24 May 2013. All the costs of the conference will be borne by the participant.

Please kindly consider this letter for the purpose of securing an entry visa or securing financing.

Thank you.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. (Dr.) R. Venkata Rao
Professor of Law & Vice-Chancellor