FOREWORD

All praise and gratitude I give to Jesus Christ, who by love and grace to me that this thesis can be done, even with the struggles that I went through was not easy the first time since college. with all the pride I would also like to say thank you deeply from the heart to those who have helped me in completing undergraduate education either directly or indirectly :

- o my dad, you are the greatest hero in my life, thank you for everything, patience, responsibility, wisdom, and life lessons that can not be judged by the material, thank you for your understanding and compassion that never lost, thanks dad, exceptional eagerness common is the light of my life, jesus god bless you
- o my mom, thank you mom on your prayers during this time, I am grateful for the love you gave me all my life, a force in life is prayer and the love you gave me, thank you mom, I hope I can reply all you've given me, JBU
- o thank you to all computer science faculty lecturer, mr. Marlon H Leong, S.Kom., M.Kom as dean, mrs.Rosita Herath ST., MIT as a supervisor, Mr. Suyanto EA., Ir.M.Sc as head of the lab project, and other lecturer who have given me their knowledge while studying at the faculty of computer science UNIKA Soegijapranata
- o all my friends are giving spirit to this thesis, my friends at the babyface club and karaoke, all staff, you are cool guys, let's go party
- o thank you to the sister and brother, may god bless you, for Yos, always the spirit of learning, a new fight begins at computer science hehe
- o last but always be first in my heart, Milka Budiana, thank you for the love you for it, which made me understand what love and loyalty, you are the greatest woman I've ever found, taught me that people are born must always fight, hopefully love we are forever

ABSTRACTION

Needs of the community in the field of information technology is growing very rapidly, at the end of this project, the author tries to make a web-based mobile application reviewing movies. An application that can run on various platforms, such as android, ios, blackberry, windows phone, symbian etc.

This application is built using jquery mobile as its main design to support applications that can run cross-platform, with php and java as programming language and SQL as the database.

Author sincerely hope in the future more and more mobile-based application software developers from Indonesia, in addition to supporting the development of information technology but it can also be a good opportunity in the business
