sociological condition, those social problems become the important aspect of life in A Painted House. It paints the real of life of Arkansas and fulfills the knowledge of the readers to know that how social problems appear which are seen from sociological approach. And this is because bad circumstance, for instance mental illness, bad attitude, selfish, brutal violence, racial and class division.

BIBLIOGRAPHY

