ABSTRACT

Canting is a novel containing with the relation between worker and employer in a company. The relation between worker and employer in Canting is not like the relation between worker and employer but the relation of family. The fact that the author of Canting wrote that employer in Canting is capitalist make the writer wants to know capitalism deeper especially in terms of the relation between worker and employer.

Besides using Karl Marx's capitalism theory, the writer uses sociological approach because the relation between worker and employer is the social relation between the social classes in society. After the writer did research, the writer found differences between the relation of worker and employer in Canting with worker and employer's relation according to Karl Marx's capitalism. Based on the differences appears between Canting with Karl Marx's capitalism, that the relation between worker and employer in Canting is affected by several things including Javanese culture. Therefore, the writer proves that not all the relations between worker and employer are in accordance with capitalism.

ABSTRAK

Canting adalah sebuah novel yang berisi kehidupan antara buruh dan majikan dalam sebuah perusahaan. Hubungan antara buruh dan majikan di Canting tidak seperti hubungan antara buruh dan majikan tapi seperti hubungan keluarga. Pada kenyataannya, pengarang Canting menulis bahwa majikan dalam Canting sebagai kapitalis membuat penulis ingin mengetahui kapitalisme lebih dalam terutama hal-hal yang berkaitan dengan buruh dan majikan.

Selain menggunakan teori kapitalismenya Karl Marx, penulis menggunakan pendekatan sosiologi karena hubungan antara buruh dan majikan merupakan hubungan sosial yang terjadi antara kelas sosial dalam masyarakat. Dan setelah melakukan penelitian, penulis menemukan perbedaan-perbedaan antara buruh dan majikan di Canting dengan hubungan buruh dan majikan di kapitalismenya Karl Marx. Dengan berlandaskan pada perbedaan-perbedaan yang muncul antara Canting dengan kapitalismenya Karl Marx, bahwa hubungan antara buruh dan majikan di Canting dipengaruhi oleh beberapa hal termasuk budaya Jawa, maka penulis mengemukakan bahwa tidak semua hubungan antara buruh dan majikan merupakan hubungan kapitalisme.
