

when Stephen must leave his past self and loved ones in achieving his goals. Moreover, in my analysis, what made it different to other analysis as there is no the Atonement with the Father step because of the unavailable father figure present in the film

In the final third stage, Return is ends with Refusal of the return, Crossing the return threshold, Master of two worlds and lastly Freedom to live which happen at the last 10 minutes of the film. This is when Stephen completed his journey and now he must continued to shoulder his new responsibility as hero while protecting the ordinary world he once lived.
