TITLE: User Acceptance Level in the Fintech OVO review Based on the Lexicon Method
AUTHORS: Albertus Widiantoro, Adi Wibowo and Bernardinus Harnadi

----------- Overall evaluation -----------
Below are my comments on this paper:
1. The motivation of this study is not discussed clearly in the introduction section. The beginning of the introduction section can be shortened, as NLP, sentiment, ML, etc are not your main contributions.

2. Many paragraphs in the introduction section only contained one sentence.

3. What is your main contribution? fintech acceptance? If yes, you should discuss about fintech acceptance studies in the related work section.

4. It is better if the data processing stages illustrated in the form of figure in the methodology section. However, you can remove discussion and conclusion as they are not part of data processing.

5. I'm quite confused with the result and discussion part. What did you mean by acceptance? is it sentiment analysis or what? In addition, the discussion is lacking. You should focus on "interpreting" business insight from your results.

6. The implications of this study both on practices and theories are missing.

----------- Overall evaluation -----------
Give a clear and strong reason why the lexicon-based approach you chose to use in your research.

Explain how you create a "word cloud".

Please make Fig 3 clearer.

Some grammatical errors in your paper. For example, "… by collecting data in Indonesian" should be corrected to "… by collecting data in Indonesia". So... Please check ALL of your grammar or use a professional proofreader to do that.

Put double quotes for words that are still in Bahasa.

You only show Results. No discussion at all.
  We recommend adding a special section for Discussion. Elaborate your research results in detail in the section
